INFORMATION ON THE MANAGEMENT AND STORAGE OF PERSONAL DATA FOR PARTICIPANTS

Below you will find the information required by current legislation and by EU Regulation 2016/679.

Who are we	The Italian Association for Congenital Central Hypoventilation Syndrome – AISICC ETS – promotes social initiatives to support affected families, raises funds to finance scientific research projects, disseminates information about the Syndrome, and acts as the controller of your personal data.
Your obligations	You may decide whether to provide the requested data or not; however, without them, we will be unable to proceed with your registration and participation in camp activities.
What data we process	For the purposes outlined in this notice, we process common personal data , specifically identification and contact details (such as name, surname, address, telephone number, e-mail address, and other contact information).
Why and how we process your data	We use both digital and paper-based tools to process the data you provide to manage your participation in our activities. Your data are processed to ensure administrative and insurance management, and to allow qualified staff to support your participation safely and appropriately. Once your participation concludes, your data will be electronically stored in appropriate systems (databases and software). Common personal data and contact details may also be stored on mobile devices and used to communicate information regarding the Association's activities via phone calls, SMS, e-mail, or other messaging services.
Legal basis for processing	The processing of your data is based on your consent. For Association's members, processing is based on the membership relationship itself. Please note that the data we request from you are essential for the proper planning of activities involving you, to ensure an experience that is as safe and as suitable as possible for the participant's needs. If you do not wish to give your consent, please contact us for further information regarding your participation at aisicc@sindromediondine.it .
Who may access your data	Your data may be accessed only by personnel specifically authorized to carry out processing activities and may be shared with: <ul style="list-style-type: none">- AISICC internal staff, including employees and volunteers- External consultants responsible for planning activities and requiring such information to manage them properly- Legal advisors (in case of disputes)- Insurance providers (where necessary) The processed data will not be disclosed, nor will it be transferred or shared with third parties . They will be shared only with qualified parties solely for the purpose of carrying out the Association's operations and providing you with information about its activities. The data will not be transferred outside the European Union under any circumstances.
Data retention period	We will retain your data in our archives for the period necessary to manage your participation and any future involvement, to document our activities, and to respond to any requests you may have for data retrieval. In any case, the data will be stored for no longer than five years since your last participation. For members, personal data included in the membership register will be retained in accordance with legal requirements. Please note that your data will be immediately deleted if you withdraw your signed membership or at any time you decide to exercise your right to erasure (right to be forgotten). In such circumstances, we would no longer be able to fulfill the commitments set out in your signed membership agreement.
Your rights and our obligations	We are required to respond to your requests to inform you how and why we process your data; we are also required to correct inaccurate data, complete incomplete data, and update information that is no longer accurate. Furthermore, we are obliged to delete data and to restrict processing when necessary; we must cease processing if you no longer agree to it; and we must provide you, in a commonly used and readable electronic format, with the personal data concerning you, or transmit them to another Controller designated by you. If needed, please contact us at aisicc@sindromediondine.it so that we can jointly verify whether all legal conditions are met and enable us to respond to your requests as quickly and effectively as possible.
Who to contact in case of concerns	If our response does not meet your expectations, you may contact the Italian Data Protection Authority: www.garanteprivacy.it
